

Quranic Revelation Diagram

610

MUHAMMAD(SAW) Revelation Starts

Quran is preserved through:

Memorisation | Recital during daily prayers | Teaching | Writing

Well known scribes of the Quran:

Zayd ibn Thabit | Ubayy ibn Ka'ab | Ibn Masud |
Muawiyah ibn Abu Sufyan | Khalid ibn Waleed | Zubayr ibn Awwam |

632

MUHAMMAD(SAW) Passes Away

633

Caliph 1: Abu Bakr | Battle of Yamamah

Compilation into a single book

Quran is gathered into a single book as a great number of Huffadh (memorizers of the Quran) are martyred during this battle

Committee of Companions

Headed by Zayd Ibn Thabit

Criteria: Written evidence & 2 witnesses.

634

Caliph 2: Umar ibn al Khattab

The Quran in book form was then handed over to Umar ibn al Khattab

Umar then passes it over to his daughter, and the Prophet's widow Hafsa

644

Caliph 3: Uthman ibn Affan

Standardises the Script

646 CE - Uthman standardises the script, in order to prevent any difference.

Committee of Companions

Zayd ibn Thabit | Abdullah ibn Az Zubayr

Saeed ibn Al Aas | Abdur Rahman bin Haarith bin Hisham

Location of the original Uthmani scripts:

Museum of City of Tashkent - Uzbekistan Central Asia

Syrian copy in in - Topkapi Museum Istanbul | Dar uk Kutub asSultaniyyah - Egypt

Further copies from these originals:

Library of Congress in Washington USA | Chester Beatty Museum Dublin - Ireland
London Museum